THE SECRET MESSAGE

A word, revealed by the flame

Every Lily's Secret candle hides a personal message at the bottom of the glass — yours to discover once the wax has burned all the way down.

“

A single flame of your heart illuminates the entire universe.

“

Espresso yourself, or just slow down.

“

Your potential is endless. Keep shining!

“

As this candle dispels the darkness, your smile lights up my heart.

“

This candle sacrificed itself for this message, but... I love you!
